will Give Up His Job as Election Commissioner and His Place in Kings County Executive Committee-Said First He Wouldn't Retire Under Fire.

contemplated early retirement of Col. Michael J. Dady as an important factor in the Republican organization in Brooklyn was announced yesterday. The news came from Albany as a sequel to Col. Dady's appearance before the Governor on Tuesday as a witness in the case of Sheriff Guden with whom he was alleged to have made a corrupt anteëlection agreement. While repudiating such an agreement, Col. Dady had to admit that he was solely responsible for the nomination of Guden.

At the close of the hearing Col. Dady had a talk with Lieut-Gov. Woodruff in reference to the political rumpus in Brooklyn, and according to the dsepatches published in the Brooklyn papers yesterday, nformed him of his intention to resign his place as Executive Committeeman from the First Assembly district and virtually retire from the political arena in Kings county, in which he has been a picturesque figure for a quarter of a century. Mr. Woodruff admitted that the situation was substantially as described by the correspondents and explained that Col. Dady's action was voluntary and not the result of any pressure from his party associates. It is also Col. Dady's intention, so it was It is also Col. Dady's intention, so a was said, to give up his $5,000-a-year job as Election Commissioner. Chairman Jacob Brenner of the Executive Committee said:

"I can scarcely believe that Dady will take such a step. For some time it has been no secret that he was anxious to forsake politics and care exclusively for his husiness interests, but he said that he didn't intend to retire under fire."

didn't intend to retire under fire."

Cel. Dady when seen last night virtually admitted that the news from Albany was authentic. "All along," he said, "my business interests have been pressing me more and more and it has been my intention for some time to retire from active rollities. The honest desire of the Repolitics. The honest desire of the Republicans in the First Assembly district to have me continue in the Executive Comto have me continue in the Executive Committee has been the principal cause why I have remained in the harness. I have no definite plans just at present, but I expect soon to be in a position when I will be able to devote more time to my private affairs.

When reminded of his recent remark that he would not retreat under fire Col. Dady said: "Well, I think the fire has gone out." With regard to the rumor that he was going to resign as Election Commissioner he said: "That matter is a good way off."

blyman John Hill Morgan is most Assemblyman John Hill Morgan is most likely to succeed Col. Dady as the executive committeeman from the First Assembly District. In view of yesterday's developments the adjourned meeting of the Executive Committee to-night may turn out an interesting gathering. Col. Dady will be on hand and may define his attitude and Lieut.-Gov. Woodruff may run down from Albany for a conference with his lieutenants.

Bert Reiss gave out this typewritten statement yesterday as a rejoinder to the scoring he got from Dady at Albany

the scoring he got from Dady at Albany on Tuesday:

Even politics has gutters where the dishonored man tries to splash the mud in which he is wallowing upon men of honor.

To deny anything Mr. Dady said would be simply dignifying his words. The people who take his assertions seriously are limited to those whom he has placed in office, and a Mr. Rawson or Raiston, who is ever ready to say something that may please his master.

The independent Republicans who are in revolt against the present management.

was suffering severely from the pounding and kicking which she says her husband gave her on Saturday night.

gave her on Saturday night.

Degnan, it is said, carns from $18 to $22 a week, and when he went home on Saturday night all he had left of his week's wages was 45 cents, which he gave to his wife. She bought meat and made a stew. Then, she says, her husband drove her and the children out of the house, sat down at the table and after eating all he could, threw the rest away. When she returned thay the rest away. When she returned there was a quarrel, and she says he knocked her down and kicked her. On Sunday morning he was arrested on the complaint of neighbors. His wife was too ill to make a complaint, but he was committed, and vesterday a formal complaint was taken vesterday a formal complaint was taken at her bedside by Police Justice Vreeland. who made her and the children comfortable, Soup, coffee and bread were brought in and the woman and her children ate for the first time since Saturday night. Mrs. the first time since Saturday night. Mrs. Degnan is soon to be a mother and her condition is serious. She is being attended by District Physician Nadler and her chil-

DIRECT LINE TO MANILA. Pacific Mail Company Will Start Steamship Service Next Month. SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 19 .- The Pacific Mail Steamship Company will begin a regular monthly service between San Francisco and Manila on March 6, the Peru being the first vessel. For a year exporters have been clamoring for a direct line to Manila. as both the Pacific Mail and Oriental com-as both the Pacific Mail and Oriental companies transferred all freight at Hong Kong, causing much delay. Manila steamers will call on the out voyages at Honolulu and Nagasaki, and then proceed directly to the Philippine port. Returning, stops will be made at Hong Kong and Honolulu. The International Mining and Trading Company, which had obtained a contract from the Government for transporting perishable goods from Manila to other Philippine ports, has collapsed. Rudolph Spreckels advanced the company $10,000 to equip the steamer Albion for the new service. It cost more than estimated and when a second call was made on Spreckels he refused to advance more money and bought the interests of the others, so he is now the owner of the vessel.

BRIDGE POLICEMAN IS INSANE. Strain of Handling the Crowds Sends Him to a Private Asylum. John Dowling, the Brooklyn Bridge policeman who is said by doctors to have been driven out of his mind by the continual thental strain of handling the crowds at this end of the Brooklyn Bridge, was declared insane yesterday by Drs. Fitch and Wildman of Bellevue Hospital. He was taken away yesterday afternoon by his friends and will be sent to a private sanitarium. Dowling has been sixteen years on the force. He lived with two sisters at 185 Seventh street. Brooklyn at 185 Seventh street, Brooklyn

Don't Like Name Suggested for New Bridge

A delegation of citizens from the borough of Queens appeared before the Aldermanic Committee on Bridges and Tunnels yesterday to protest against the name of Ravens-wood Bridge for New East River Bridge No. 4. The delegation urged that the bridge should be called the Blackwell's Island bridge, for the reason that the name Ravenswood words. Ravenswood would convey no idea to the general public as to its locality. It is under-stood that the committee will report favor-bly upon the protest of the delegation.

THE OPERA. Massenet's Spectacular Work "Le Cld

Sueg Last Night. "Le Cid" was sung at the Metropolitan Opera House last night for the first time this season; the occasion was also signalled by the reentrance of Mile. Breval of the Paris Opéra in the character of Chimene. With the possible exception of his Esclar-monde Massenet has never made such an elaborate piece of musical confectionery as "Le Cid." Neglecting obvious chances for the delineation of the heroic, virile and stirring his music runs to sentimental secol in garish magnificence and commonplace lyrics. Setting aside the well-known "Pleurez, Pleurez, mes yeux" and "O noble lame étincelante"—the former a timid paraphrase of Stradella's "Pity, O Savior"here is little in this long-winded and pretentious work save decoration, stucco, hollow, glittering arabesques. But the ballet must not be overlooked. Lugged in as a "filler" it will nevertheless survive when the opera is dusty with neglect. It is picturesque, charming, dynamically various and its choreographic canvas crowded with color. The dances are Castillane, Andalouse, Aragonaise, Aubade, Catalane, Madrilene and Navaraise. The orehestration throughout lacks the saving delicacy of "Manon"—it is often noisy and out-books Meyerbeer in its brassy clangors

There are echoes of Verdi-Chimene's cene with a chanted refrain is Amneris transposed to Spain-Wagner, Wagner encore Wagner. The duo in Act II. is strong and classic in contour, and the Cid sings his "Paraissez, Navarrais, Maures et Castilians" to stirring music. But who can forget Bayreuth and "Parsifal" when the Burgos Cathedral scene is presented with its bells, boys, processional and patibulary movements and attitudes! That is a Bay-reuth Meyerbeerized.

reuth Meyerbeerized.

If "Le Cid" lacks the primal flavor of savagery; if its heroics are mock, its sentiment liquorish, it is, on the other hand, spectacular, following with anxious rectitude the traditions of Gallic grand opera. It would never have been heard but for Jean de Reszke who originated the leading rolethough why, no one exactly knows. Certainly it gave him little to do, except to look handsome and to sing with his accustomed artistry. And even Jean de Reszke could not make us forget the banalities of the fourth act or the dramatic longeurs of the encampment scene. matic longeurs of the encampment scene.

The performance, as might be expected, was not very smooth; the stage was sadly managed and there was much prompting from behind, side and front; the chorus, too, did not enter into its measures with overwhelming enthusiasm. However, there was Lucienne Bréval and there was, very desidedly Alvares. The part of Chimene. decidedly, Alvarez. The part of Chimene, a character out of a Mrs. Radcliffe novel, lies well within the dramatic comprehension of Bréval; so does the vocal part, excepting that low B in "Pleurez-Pleurez." She is as handsome as ever and possesses

She is as handsome as ever and possesses the true vis tragica—indeed force is the chief note of her miming. The celebrated B minor solo, sometimes known as the "pleurisy air," was well delivered albeit the upper B was rather labored. In the concerted music;Bréval was as usual very effective. She was heartily welcomed.

Alvarez as Rodrigue the Cid was in his element—a handsome, manly warrior with a voice of pure gold. If—there is a fatal "if"—if Alvarez could get that same voice further forward his work would be well nigh faultless. His B flat was a clarion call! Suzanne Adams as the Infan'a—Melba's part—sang her one solo with its "Allelulia" refrain excellently. Edouard de Reszke was a noble Don Diegue, delivering his "Quon digne" with power and dignity. Journet was Gormus, Gilibert the King—with a ghastly make-up—and Dufriche the Moorish Envoy, who is versatile enough to play the rôle of Prince Henry next week if needs be. The ballet was very well danced, and, miribile dictul applauded; the prima ballerina was a scarlet humming bird, and the audience was meagre in size.

writing. The will had not been witnessed food or fire in the room. Mrs. Degnan by any person, nor had any executor been appointed. It left all the property, that Mrs. Holley possessed, between $10,000 and $15,000, except a bequest to the Methodist Church at Bloomingburg, to Lucius B. Eaton, about 30 years of age, also an employee of the Treasury Department. Mrs. Holley was a widow. Her maiden name was Beyea and she was a member of the well-known Beyea family of New Vernon. this county. Her husband was a carpenter at the White House under President Grant's Administration. She had been in the Government service since the death of her husband, which occurred in 1883.

The will has been filed for probate by Lucius B. Eaton, named as residuary legatee. Watts & Burke of this city, who legatee. Watts & Burke of this city, who have been engaged by the heirs-at-law and next of kin, are trying to have the will declared invalid and to prevent its admission to probate, because of the fact that it was witnessed by no one and that no executor was appointed. The following is a copy of the will found in Mrs. Holley's desk and read in the presence of witnesses:

read in the presence of witnesses:

Washington, D. C., Aug. 31, 1901.

I am going on a journey and may never return, and if I do not, this is my last request. The mortgage on the King house, which is in the possession of Mrs. H. H. Brown, to go to the Methodist Church at Bloomingburg. All the rest of my property, both real and personal, to my adopted son, L. B. Eaton of the Life Saving Service, Treasury Department, Washington, D. C. All I have is mown hard earnings and I intend to leave it to whom I please.

Caroline Holley.

The heirs-at-law are Ira Dorrance. Winto whom I please. CAROLINE HOLLEY.
The heirs-at-law are Ira Dorrance, Winthrop Dorrance, Harrison H. Brown, James Beyea, Archibald A. Beyea, Phosbe Beyea, Henry Beyea, Susan Pierson, John Wilkin and Mary M. Millspaugh, nearly all of whom reside in this city. Lucius B. Eaton, the adopted son mentioned in the strange will.

MUST CUT OUT SWEAR WORDS. Kissing Also Not to Be Allowed in a College Play at Northwestern.

was never legally adopted by Mrs. Holley.

CHICAGO, Feb. 19 .- Swear words, kissing, cold tea and card playing in the sophomore play have been tabooed by the faculty of Northwestern University, and the production, "What Became of Parker?" must be pruned until it suits the authorities of the Methodist institution. The cast has rebelled against faculty interference.

In the junior play, given last month, the word "damn" was spoken so frequently and with such earnestness that the proessors were shocked and the co-eds scandalized. On learning that the coming play was even more shocking, acting President Daniel Bonbright declared that it must be free from objectionable features or he would prohibit the production. The manager and players are trying to prevail on the faculty to allow them to produce the play with some of the author's

JOTTINGS ABOUT TOWN.

A supposed bomb which the Madison street police sent to the Bureau of Combustibles at Fire Head-quarters yesterday was found to be only a dry electric battery.

The third early spring flower show will open on Saturday at the Conservatory in Central Park, opposite 105th street. The Easter show will open on March 27.

March 27.

George A. Gunthur, the proprietor of a retail dry goods store in Dunkirk, N. Y., died in the Grand Hotel yesterday morning of heart disease while on one of his frequent business trips to this city, he was 40 years old.

James T. Soden of 427 West Thirty-sixth street, a prisoner in the Tombs charged with petity larceny, became violently insane in his cell on Tuesday night. He was put in a strait-jacket and yesterday was committed to Believue.

NAB PRINCETON STUDENTS.

TWELVE FRESHMEN JAILED FOR PAINTING TRENTON.

They Daubed Their Class Numerals All Over the Town and Even The Battle nument Did Not Escape -- Held in Ball for the Action of Grand Jury.

TRENTON, N. J., Feb. 19.-The residential portion of this city is bedecked to-day with the colors of Princeton University and twelve freshmen of that institution are under $100 bail each to explain to the next Grand Jury why Trenton should be thus honored contrary to the wishes of its citizens and officials. The Orange and Black of Old Nassau are not displayed in the form of bunting or streamers, but shine on house fronts, stables, street cars and even from a commanding position on the Trenton Battle Monument, in the shape of paint. The various edifices were thus adorned by gang of freshmen who visited here early this morning and who about 3 o'clock were rounded up and placed in cells at the central police station for the remainder of the night. The students arrested were G. S. Wylie and Charles Richards of New York city; James Smith, Beaver Falls, Pa.; Robert Pettit, Overbrook, Pa.; H. J. Raymond, Germantown, Pa.: O'Brien Curtis, Red Bank, N. J.; Lambert Cadwallader, Fort Washingon; W. L. Foulke, Germantown, Pa. F. D. Reinhart, Plainfield, N. J.; J. R. Miller, Beyin, Pa.; H. Minot, South Orange; J. D.

Towne, Evanston, Ill. Foulke was half back on last years' Varsity football eleven and Wylie, Minot and Miller played in the scrub. Cadwallader was recently elected secretary of his

These men with perhaps a score of others, started out last night to paint the class numerals upon every available place between here and Princeton.

They reached Lawrenceville about midnight and after blazing their way through the sleeping village ploughed on through snowdrifts to Trenton. While they were painting the big shaft of the Battle monument a policeman hove in sight and the freshmen ran away. Every patrolman in the city was notified to be on the lookout and before morning the twelve men named had been rounded up. They spent the re-mainder of the night singing college songs and giving their college cry.

The students had a hearing this morning

The students had a hearing this morning and with two exceptions pleaded not guilty. All were held in bail, which was furnished by Gen. S. Meredith Dickinson, four of whose sons are graduates of Princeton. The college authorities have had proctors here all day and a thorough investigation is promised, it being stated that the ringleaders will be dismissed and other participants suspended from the university. The damage to property amounts to several thousand dollars.

thousand dollars.

PRINCETON, N. J., Feb. 19.—Several days ago the authorities of the university appealed to the students to abolish this sopealed to the students to abolish this so-called custom of painting which has pre-vailed for several years during the days immediately preceding Washington's Birth-day. The appeal had the sincere support of the upper classmen, who, in view of the acts committed this morning, will probably take summary action abolishing this prac-tice entirely. The faculty also, it is said, will severely punish the guilty ones.

TO MAKE BRIDGES BEAUTIFUL.

altogether out of proportion. In the future I shall work to have more attention paid to the esthetic in bridge construction and I will ask those who come after me to have regard for it."

IN VICTOR HUGO'S MEMORY. The Alliance Francaise to Celebrate the Poet's Centenary To-night. The Alliance Française will celebrate the centenary of Victor Hugo at Berkeley Lyceum to-night. The evening will be devoted entirely to the life and works of the French patriot and poet. Prof. A. Wisner, who knew the poet personally, will give personal reminiscenes. Recitations from the poet's works will be given by Prof. Edouard Lance, Mme. Sariabous, Miss Breitner and Messrs F. Flandin and Réné Wildenstein. Music Flandin and Réné Wildenstein. Music will be supplied by Miss Helen Buell, Mme. Feuardent and Mme. Breitner. Only members of the alliance and their friends

FUNERAL OF JOHN S. KENYON Delegation Goes From Albany on a Special Train.

STRACUSE, Feb. 19 .- The funeral of John S. Kenyon, Secretary of the State Rail-road Commission, took place here this afternoon. The services were conducted by the Rev. Dr. H. R. Lockwood at St. Paul's Church. The delegation from Al-Paul's Church. The delegaton from Albany came on a special train. It included the State Railroad Commissioners, several Senators and Assemblymen and officers of the Senate and Assembly. Major J. K. Bird was here as the personal representative of Gov. Odell, who sent a floral wreath. The buriel was at Oakwood Cemetery. The burial was at Oakwood Cemetery, services in the chapel being conducted under Masonic auspices.

MURDER SECRET DEAD WITH HIM

Col. W. W. Arnett Dies Suddenly - Fate of

Two Condemned Men in the Balance. WHEELING, W. Va., Feb. 19.-Col. William W. Arnett, one of the best known criminal lawyers in the country, died suddenly this morning. With him passed away the secret of a great murder case. Frank Friday and John Mooney are now in the State prison under death penalty for the murder two years ago of James Hervey, a rich Ohio county farmer.

Col. Arnett unearthed new evidence which he certified to the Board of Pardons as cause for a rehearing of the case. He positively informed the board that he would

Two Cages of Wild Cats for Davenport. DENISON, Tex., Feb. 19. - The "Katy" Flyer express car was the centre of attraction this morning at the Union station. On board the car were ten cages of live wild cats from South America. Six of the cages are con-signed to the Cincinnati Zoological Garden, two to Charles Payne, a wealthy citizen of Wichita, Kan., and two to Homer Daven-

tell who were the murderers port, the cartoonist, who maintains a private menagerie at his home, Morris Plains, N. J. An Extra Performance of "Manru."

In view of the great demand for seats the performance to be given this evening. Maurice Grau has arranged for another

STORM AGAIN UP THE STATE.

Country Roads in Central and Northern New York Blocked Again.

SYRACUSE, Feb. 19.- The storm still continues in central and northern New York. It is especially severe in the northern section. The Watertown division of the Rome, Watertown and Ogdensburg Railroad was abandoned yesterday afternoon, and passengers are being sent around by the way of Oswego. Trains from the east on the New York Central are from three to four hours late. All trains on this road are being run with two locomotives.

FONDA, N. Y., Feb. 19.—The heavy wind of yesterday continued during the night and this morning the country roads are improved by the recombanks in places being improved the country in the country roads are impassable, the snowbanks in places being n to twenty feet deep. Lyons, N. Y., Feb. 19.—A blizzard arrived last night with a sixty-mile gale and nine inches of snow. Country roads are block-aded and rural free mail delivery has been abandoned. Electric roads are tied up.

ALBANY, Feb. 19.—One of three locomotives attached to a local train on the Delaware and Hudson Railroad was ditched by running into a snowbank at Meadowdale this morning. The passengers were shaken up but no one was injured. Traffic was delayed for several hours. delayed for several hours.

STAMPING OUT SMALLPOX. Manhattan Borough Bullding Attaches

Vaccinated—Only 3 New Cases. Superintendent of Buildings Perez M. Stewart assembled all the 200 inspectors, messengers and other employees of his bureau at the headquarters, 220 Fourth avenue, bright and early yesterday morning and received a physician from the President of the Board of Health who vaccinated all hands except those who had already been inoculated. Mr. Stewart be-lieved that it was a timely precaution, especially in the case of the inspectors and especially in the case of the inspectors and messengers, whose duties require that they shall visit crowded tenements and miscellaneous dwellings in all parts of the borough of Manhattan. Three of the female typewriters had their arms punctured and inoculated. The other typewriters had already been vaccinated. All submitted good naturedly to the applisubmitted good naturedly to the appli-cation of the needle.

Only three new cases of smallpox were reported yesterday to the Health Department. There was one case each in The Bronx, Brooklyn and Manhattan.

Salvationists Quarantined.

A case of smallpox was discovered last night in the Salvation Army lodging house at 130 Hudson street, Hoboken. George Hovey, the victim, was removed to the pest house at Snake Hill. The lodging house was quarantined, two Salvation officers being among the confined inmates

OBITUARY.

Joseph Sky, 83 years old, a chief of the Caughnawaga Indians, died on Tuesday night at his home in Caughnawaga. He was born on April 5, 1819, and leaves a widow, one daughter and three sons, all of whom reside on the reservation. He was elected chief in 1852 and was chief when the first Indian Lacrosse team went to Europe. He was chief when King Edward visited Canada in 1880. He was a noted athlete having been very fast on foot in the snort distances. The chief was with Dawson when he surveyed the route to Manitoba over which the troops went at one time. Chief Sky was better known as a Lachine Rapids pilot than in any other capacity, he having for years taken rafts down the channel of the rough water with great success. It is asserted that Chief Sky also ferried the present King of England between Lachine and Caughnawaga in a bark cance. He was a most eloquent crator among Indians in their native Iroquois tongue. Henry Peirson who had been for the past Melicals part—sang her one solo with its behoured man tries to spiss the mud in which he is wallowing upon men of honor. The properties of the head of the properties of the p

Club and a personal friend of John C. Shee han. Mr. Grow leaves a widow who wa Miss Rosette Storrs of Chicago, and one son Miss Rosette Storrs of Chicago, and one son K. T. B. Spader died on Wednesday morning at New Brunswick, N. J., aged 80. He was a pioneer rubber manufacturer of New Jersey, and was Secretary and Treasurer of the New Brunswick Rubber Company for forty years In 1862 he was recommended as Major of the Third Regiment Middlesex Brigade, by Charles S. Olden, then Governor of New Jersey, and he served for ten years as Collector of Internal Revenue for the county of Middlesex, being appointed first by President Lincoln. A wife and one son, William B. Spader, survive him.

him.

Col. Francis J. Turner, a noted Boer scout, formerly a resident of Brooklyn, died in London on Tuesday. He was a civil, mining and mechanical engineer, and had acquired large interests in South Africa. As leading scout of the Boer Army in the first eighteen months of the war, he led some daring raids. He was severely wounded in the battle of Colenso, and was sent to Holland, via Australia and America, both to recuperate and to do important work for the Boer cause. He was preparing to return to South Africa.

Sir A. T. Goshorn died yesterday in Cincinimportant work for the Boer cause. He was preparing to return to South Africa.

Sir A. T. Goshorn died yesterday in Cincinnati. He had been failing over since an apoplectic and paralytic stroke eight years ago took a turn for the worse two days ago. He was knighted by Queen Victoria for services as President of the Commission in charge of the Centennial Exposition at Philadelphia in 1876. He also received decorations from several other foreign nations. He was once President of the City Council of Cincinnati. He was 728 years old.

The Rev. Charles E. Lord, D. D. died suddenly yesterday at his home in Newburyport, Mass., aged 85. He was born in 1888. He was at one time professor of evidence of Christianity and Church history at Talmage's Lay College. He was a strong Abolitionist in the ante-bellum days and wrote several pamphlets on the subject, besides being a writer of several books on theology. He is survived by his wife.

Dr. Levi Cooper Lane of San Francisco died there yesterday after a long illness. He was as years of age. He was a graduate of Union College, Schenectady, and Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia, and the founder of the Cooper Medical College and Lane Hospital of San Francisco, both of which institutions he richly endowed.

W. M. Salisbury, one of the oldest rubber merchants in Chicago, died at his home in that city yesterday afternoon. He was in his eighty-fifth year and had been in the rubber business in Chicago since 1874. Most of his time had been spent in the East during the past fifteen years. He leaves a widow and seven children.

John Augustus Churchill died yesterday at the Langham Hotel on Fifth avenue after John Augustus Churchill died yesterday John Augustus Churchill died yesterday it the Langham Hotel on Fifth avenue after long illness. He was formerly in the dry goods business, but retired some time ago. He had made his home at the Langham for he last four years. He leaves a widow and o sons.

The Rev. Cornelius Earle, the oldest minister the Lehigh Presbytery died at Easton Pa., Tuesday night in his 78th year. For fortyth years he was pastor of the Presbyterian ch, Catasauqua, Pa, retiring two years on account of ill health.

to on account of in heath.

Gen. Thomas F. Toon, State Superintendent
Public Instruction in North Carolina, died

ddenly yesterday in Baleigh in that State, e rose from the ranks to be a Brigadier-Gend in the Confederate Army

Not Edison Light That Falled. The theatres which were left in darkness

r a few minutes on Tuesday night when he electric lights went out, get their power m the United Electric Light and Power Company and not from the plant of the Edison company in West Twenty-sixth street. A representative of the latter company said yesterday that there never has been an interruption in their service.

Army Pier Foot of Wall Street.

The War Department has signed a long erm lease of Pier 12 (new) East River, at the foot of Wall street, and the Dock Deextra representation of "Manru." It will be given at the Metropolitan Opera House one week from to-morrow afternoon. The opera will then be sung by the regular cast,

LET KAISER'S GIFTS IN FREE?

CUSTOMS PEOPLE WILL PROB-ABLY TAKE THAT COURSE.

Government Is to Adopt Most Stringent Regulations to Insure the Safety of Prince Henry During His Stay in This Country - The Prince's Bankers.

Prince Henry, who is now on his way to New York on the Kronprinz Wilhelm has with him a number of presents from the Kaiser, and the question was raised yesterday whether the payment of duty on them would be exacted by the Custom House people. No orders on this point have been received from Washington yet, and if none are received before the Prince's arrival it is probable that the customs officials will take a very liberal course in the matter. Ladenburg, Thalmann & Co. have been appointed financial agents to the Prince during his stay here. Regarding the reception of visitors on the Hohenzollern during Prince Henry's absence Consul-General Buenz yesterday issued the following notice:

following notice:

The Hohenzollern will not be open for inspection before the 27th of February. Tickets of admission will be issued in the office of the German Consulate-General, 11 Broadway, Room 934, between 2 and 5 P. M., on the 26th of February, for the day following and after that on each day up to and including the 5th of March, for each day following, on personal application only. Applications in writing positively not considered.

President Cillis of the German Society announced yesterday that 1,000 persons would be at the dinner of the society at the would be at the dinner of the society at the Waldorf-Astoria on March 8 at which the Prince will be a guest. President Roosevelt will sit at the right of Prosident Gustav H. Schwab and the Prince at his left. One hundred picked singers of the Liederkranz Society will sing a German greeting song. The only speeches in English will be those of Mayor Low and President Butler of Columbia University.

The Opera Committee held another meeting at the Chamber of Commerce yesterday. It is reported that some of the committee do not approve of the length of Mr. Grau's programme. Mr. Grau said afterward that barring unforeseen events the programme do not approve of the length of Mr. Grau's programme. Mr. Grau said afterward that barring unforeseen events the programme would not be changed.

It came to the knowledge of President Fornes yesterday that Mrs. Florence Kohler, who has been permitted to use his office to prepare a programme of the ceremonies, has been sending out letters written on city stationery offering to publish photographs in the programme for $25. Mr. Fornes said that while he had allowed Mrs. Kohler to use his office he had not authorized her to use the stationery in his office and was unaware that she was making a charge for the insertion of photographs in her was unaware that she was making a charge for the insertion of photographs in her programme. He added that he had immediately put a stop to the business.

The ice in the lower bay is giving the builders of the Meteor some anxiety, as under certain conditions it might interfere with the launching, but it is probable that it will disappear before the date set.

In pursuance of the strict precautions that are to be taken to insure the personal safety of the Prince, instructions were sent from Washington yesterday that no persons excepting the Reception Committee shall be permitted to board the Kronprinz Wilhelm when she enters the port, and that none shall be admitted beyond the baggage inspection enclosure at the pier when the vessel arrives there.

RACING WITH THE PRINCE.

Campania and St. Louis May Arrive About Same Time as Kronprinz Wilhelm. Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN.

LONDON, Feb. 19 .- The story that the steamers Campania, St. Louis and Kronprinz Wilhelm are racing seems only to be based on the fact that the times of their departure accidentally arranged a handicap, which, in view of their respective performances, is a very fair one.

The Campania left Queenstown at 6:45 P. M. Sunday, the St. Louis passed the Lizard at 12:20 A. M., and the Kronprinz Wilhelm sailed from Cherbourg at 9 P. M. It is pointed out that the efforts the captains are supposed to be making may possibly result in the three steamers arriving within the same hour.

STOCKYARDS OR UNIVERSITY? Prince Henry Will Have to Choose Between

Them on His Chicago Visit. CHICAGO, Feb. 19 .- Prince Henry will choose for himself between the University of Chicago and the Union Stockyards The Executive Committee will make no attempt to settle which of the two places he shall visit. Chairman Eddy said to-day that the invitations from both institutions had been sent to the Prince and the question of which he would prefer to see is left for him determine. It is regarded as impossible for him to go to both places in the limited time that will be at his disposal, as he is to go to Lin will be at his disposal, as he is to go to Li coin Park to place a wreath on the Linco monument first, and will not be able cover the distance between that place the Union Stockyards and the University.

$10,000 for Her Fractured Skull. Mrs. Lydia Sealey of 154 South First street obtained a verdict for $10,000 damages in the Supreme Court in Brooklyn yesterday against the Metropolitan Street Railway Company for personal injuries re-ceived in May, 1899, at Fourth avenue and Fourth street, Manhattan. She was cross-ing the street, when a trolley car knocked her down. Her skull was fractured. She was assisted into the court room by two

The Nashville and Knoxville Sold.

NASHVILLE, Feb. 19.—The Nashville and Knoxville Railroad and its coal properties to-day passed into the control of the Tennessee Central. The payment of $500,000 to effect the transfer, which was to have been made before noon to-morrow, was made in St. Louis to-day, and it is announced that the transfer is now complete. This pay-ment gives the Tennessee Central posses-sion of the Nashville and Knoxville and the Crawford coal properties.

The storm which has been traversing this section was central on the Nova Scotla coast yesterday, accompanied by moderate snow. High winds have continued along the Middle Atlantic and New Augusta, Ga. Heavy frosts are reported from northern Florida.

In this city yesterday it was fair and colder; wind high northwesterly; average humidity, 63 per cent; barometer, corrected to read to sea level, at 8 A. M., 29.81; 3 P. M., 29.88. The temperature yesterday, as recorded by the official thermometer, and also by THE SUN'S thermometer at the street level, is shown in the an.

nexed table: - O/fictal - Sun's | - O/fictal - 1902 | 1901 | 1902 | 1902 | 1902 | 1902 | 1901 | 1902 | 1902 | 1901 | 12 M ... 27 | 36 | 18 M ... 27 | 37 | 38 P. M ... 29 | 30 | 29 | 12 Mid ... 22 | 29 |

WASHINGTON PORECAST FOR TO-DAY AND TO For eastern New York, eastern Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware, fair to-day and to-mor-row, with slowly rising temperature; fresh north-

For New England, fair to day and to-morrow; diminishing northwest winds.

For Maryland and the District of Columbia, partly cloudy to day and probably to morrow; fresh west winds, becoming variable. For western New York, fair to day, with rising temperature in west portion; probably fair to

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

NEW PUBLICATIONS

PUBLISHED THIS DAY

AMONG THE BEST TIMED BOOKS ARE ARCHIBALD COLOUHOUN'S "MASTERY OF THE PACIFIC" AND BENJAMIN KIDD'S "PRINCIPLES OF WEST-CIVILISATION," WHICH SUPPLY FACT AND PHILOSOPHY FOR THE POSITION NOW WON BY AMERICA IN INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS.

THE MASTERY OF THE PACIFIC

By A. R. COLQUHOUN, F. R. S.,

Author of "China in Transformation," etc. With 40 full-page half-tones and 100 drawings in the text. Cloth, 8vo, $4.00 net.

THE next arena in the world's politics will be the Pacific, says Mr. COLQUHOUN. The conflict of interests is likely to become keen where the Oriental western powers meet. The author has visited all the principal islands of the Pacific and is intimately acquainted with the mainland of Asia, bordering that ocean from Korea to Singapore, and with the United States, Canada and Central America.

MR. COLQUHOUN'S new book contains a trenchant and exhaustive account of the development, history and present status of the Far Eastern Countries and of our pres-

Books published at NET prices are sold by booksellers everywhere at the advertised NET prices.

THE MACMILLAN COMPANY

RARE-History of the Rod. Amadis. Warton's | Sapho. Anacreon. Serpent Worship. PRATT, 161 6th av.

OFFICE FURNITURE. DESKS.

Great Variety of Style and Price. T. G. SELLEW.

DIED.

a long illness, John Augustus Churchill, aged 57.

Funeral services at his late residence, 661 Fifth av., on Saturday morning, Feb. 22, 1902, at 11:30 o'clock. Interment at convenience of family. FELLOWS .- At Paris, on Tuesday, Feb. 18, 1902, Laura Amelia Mease, widow of William Mott Pellows, in the 87th year of her age.

Funeral services on Thursday, Peb. 20, 1902, at American Church in Paris. Interment at convenience of family in Greenwood. PRENTICE.—On Monday, Feb. 17, 1902, of pneu-monia, Nathaniel Sartell, son of the late John his age. Funeral from his late residence 387 Lexington ave., on Thursday, Feb. 20, 1902, at 10 A. M. It is kindly requested that no flowers be sent. SENFTNER.—On Tuesday, Feb. 18, 1902, at the residence of his parents, 148 West 122d st., ner, in the 26th year of his age.

Puneral service at his late residence on Thursday, Feb. 20, 1902, at 8 P. M. Intermentat

SPEYERS -On Tuesday, Feb. 18, 1902, Frances Bayard, widow of James Speyers and daughter of the late Rear Admiral George Pigot, Roya Navy, and Caroline Bayard. ral private from her late residence, 415 West 23d st., on Thursday, Feb. 20, 1902, at 10:80 o'clock. Washington and English papers please

TIFFANY .- Suddenly, on Tuesday morning, Feb 18, 1902, at his residence, 255 Madison av., Charles Lewis Tiffany, in his 91st year. Funeral services at the Madison Square Presby. terian Church on Thursday morning, Feb. 30 1902, at 10 o'clock. It is kindly requested that AUGHAN.-At Astoria, L. I., on Tuesday, Feb. 18, 1802, suddenly, William W. Vaughan, in the 69th year of his age. Funeral services at his late residence, 185 New town av., Astoria, on Friday, Feb. 21, 1902, at 2 P. M.

CORWIN TO WED MISS MENGES. Jewelled Brooch That Cost $4,000 On of His Gifts to Young Bride. Halsey Corwin will wed Miss Roberta Menges of Sheepshead Bay this afternoon in St. Matthias's Church, East Twentythird street, Sheepshead Bay. The young man has spared no expense in his arrangements. Yesterday while at the Clarendon Hotel in Brooklyn, where the wedding breakfast is to be served at 4 o'clock, Cor win bought for his fiancés a gold brood with a pigeon-blood ruby in the centre surrounded by many diamonds. The price paid was $4,000. This contradicts the story that Corwin intended to give the ugliest bulldog in the country to his wife as a wedding present. Accused of Stealing in Church.

have continued along the Middle Atlantic and New England coasts, the general direction being from the northwest. They come from a high pressure central over the upper Lake regions.

Light snow continued to fall yesterday in New York State and northern Pennsylvania. An area of low pressure has appeared on the west Guit coast. Freezing weather extends as far south as Angusta. Ga. Heavy frosts are reported from nounced THE COLONIALS we took it to our sellers with fear and trembling. Another historical novel by a new We cannot remember that a single dealer said an encouraging word. None of them seemed to care to know whether it was well written or not. It might have been as good as Scott's Ivanhoe. They condemned it un-

Feb. 1.—The book was published. Feb. 5.—More orders were received than we could fill.

Feb. 5.—A new edition was put to Feb. 6.-Edition increased.

Moral: A really good book will succeed in spite of preconceived no-DOUBLEDAY, PAGE & CO.

34 Union Sq., N. Y.

Feb. 14.- Third edition sent to press.

COLLEGES AND SCHOOLS For Boys and Young Men -City and Country N. Y. PREPARATORY SCHOOL

15 West 43d St., N. Y., Telephone 4696-38. Day, Evening or Private. Send for Catalogue. For Girls and Young Women-City and Country KINDERGARTEN TRAINING. CLASSES

(Free Scholarships.) Z. A. CUTTEN, Supt.
48 Irving Place, near East 17th St. (Formerly Metropolitan Temple.) EVENING CLASSES For Children -City and Country.

A SCHOOL FOR EXCEPTIONAL, NERVOUS AND DEFECTIVE CHILDREN.
MAXIMILIAN P. E. GROSZMANN, Pd. D., Dd
rector. Boarding and day pupils. "Pinehurst, Fort Washington av and Depot lane, New York city Business Colleges. The Miller School of Business.

ST. JAMES BUILDING, 1133 BROADWAY.
Shorthand. Typewriting. Bookkeeping.
Enter any day or evening. No vacations. Circulars
"No BETTER SCHOOL AT ANY PRICE." PENMAN and business college graduate desires to teach in school or private family; experienced in large school; make an offer. G. W. CRAWFORD, Mineral Point, Wis.

Schools of Languages.

ADULTS FRENCH INSTRUCTION (bookless) conversation guaranteed in six weeks; gratuitous trial. DEVROYE FRENCH SCHOOL, 152 East 49th st. MINSTREL WEST BURIED.

Many Actors, Business Men and Politicians

Attend the Funeral. The funeral services of William H. West, the well-known minstrel, were held yester-day at the rooms of Brooklyn Lodge 22 of Elks. Following the service of the Elks street was arrested yesterday charged with stealing a purse containing $24 from Mrs. Delia Torpey of 469 Lenox avenue while Mrs. Torpey was at prayer in the Church of St. Paul the Apostle. The girl sat behind her and the purse was on the seat. Magistrate Mayo held the girl for trial.

One Killed and Four Injured in Wreek.

Tammany and Reform Prices.

The Health Department made a contract esterday with John Adler of 1112 Eleventh avenue by which calves for vaccine will be furnished at $6 a head. The Tammany board paid the same man $10 a head.

FOREIGN HOTELS.

FORUGN HOTELS.

THE HOTELS DE LUXE OF LONDON.

The Savoy Restaurant. The most renowned and fashion-

The only Hotel de Luxe of moderate size, overlooking the Green Park and Devonshire House.

NOTICE: In view of the approaching Coronation, an early application for rooms is carnestly "The Savoy Hotel, London, W. C." edvised. For full particulars address:

ent and future political and commercial relations to them.

ivered from the publishers, carriage, either postage or expressage, is an extra charge.

66 Fifth Avenue, New York

BORDEN.-On Monday, Feb. 17, 1903, Harriet M. wife of M. C. D. Borden.

Funeral service at her late residence, 25 West 56th st., on Thursday morning, Feb. 20, 1902, at 10 o'clock. HURCHILL.-On Wednesday, Peb. 19, 1902, after and Sarah N. Prentice, in the 56th year of George W., son of Robert and Magdalena Senft-

Bertha Buch of 169 East Ninety-sixth

The Savoy Hotel. Overlooking the River Thames and Embankment Gardens.

Claridges Hotel. Brook Street and Grosvenor Square; patronized by the elite of European and American society. Berkeley Hotel.